Two Days from Japan

Howdy Partner and Pal,

Hiya Pop, long time since I have had any letters from you or Mom. I'll probably get loaded down with them in Japan on Monday. Ha Ha. I hope you will take a heck of lot of good pictures this summer as I'll take some and we can compare them when I get back home. I'm sending your pictures back home with comments on the backs of them. For a general coverage of the pictures you got a grade of 3.9. Used wrong kind of film in copying and wrong lighting in kitchen. USE THE DAMED FLOOD LAMPS. Now, that's over with Ha Ha. Just kidding. But I do want you to use the flood lamps. I'm still looking forward to the ones of the 23½" trout that weighed five pounds. Hope you got them on the road already. Well, I hope that you have sent the Kodachrome slides to me by now and I'll sure look for them. I'll probably have them Monday of this week if I know you at all. HAHA. I just wanted to get this written to send the pictures, but I can't think of anything else for now so I'll slowly close and hit the sack. over.

Should have used slower film for finer grain. But it's damn good considering it being blown up from 35mm. You done fine. Keep it up.
