Pete Escovedo Latin Jazz Dinner @ the USS Hornet Museum

Alameda, CA: Please join the USS Hornet as they bring together two SF Bay Area historical legends: Latin Jazz Genius Pete Escovedo and Apollo 11 and 12 recovery ship USS Hornet.

The legendary Pete Escovedo brings his incredible Latin jazz fusion to the USS Hornet on 18 October 2025 at 7:00 PM. Known for his vibrant performances and captivating rhythms, Escovedo has led a rich musical career that beautifully blends salsa, jazz, and other influences. This event promises to be an unforgettable evening celebrating his rich heritage and outstanding musical talent.

CVS-12

Aircraft Carrier Hornet Foundation preserves and honors the legacy of the USS Hornet CV-12 and its role in naval aviation, the defense of our country, the Apollo Program and the exploration of space. The USS Hornet Museum connects the greatest generation of Americans with future generations, educating and inspiring them to meet their challenges. As a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, the USS Hornet Museum relies on the generosity of individuals to fund our educational programs, restoration projects, create and enhance exhibits and much more. The Museum is not supported in any way by regular grants from city, county, state or federal sources. Through field trips and live-aboard experiences, the USS Hornet Museum offers educational programs focusing on naval history, science and space technology: <https://uss-hornet.org/youth-education>. A registered state and national historic landmark, the ship is open to the public on weekends from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and is permanently berthed at 707 W. Hornet Ave., Pier 3 in Alameda, CA. Ample free parking is available across from the pier. The USS Hornet Museum is also a unique, unforgettable venue available for corporate events; trade shows and expos; private parties and big band dances; and TV and film productions.
